PREFACE

Originally published in 1971 under the title, FENTON WESLEY JOHNSON, HIS ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS, this book has been brought up-to-date and expanded to include ancestors of Fenton Wesley Johnson and Florence Genevieve Bailey, and all known descendants including those from Fenton's marriage to Florence LaBach. In addition, 52 family photographs have been added.

I would like to express my deepest thanks to the members of this family who have provided me with information and assistance. Without their cooperation and their patience in answering my many questions, this could never have been completed. I am grateful to Velma Johnson Emmons who so generously shared her scrapbook with me. This is a remarkable family whose members have kept in touch over the years, making it possible to compile information such as this.

A word about the arrangement. Individual numbers run consecutively all the way through the first section (descendants). Letter prefixes change to indicate the generation. Each descendant keeps his/her same letter-number designation all the way through the book, first listed as a child in the household of his parents, and later listed as an adult.

A single asterisk * after a name means that person was adopted into the family.

Every effort has been made to insure the accuracy of the information presented here. If errors are found, please accept my apology.

RECOLLECTIONS OF MY FATHER

By Hugh Bailey Johnson

Fenton Johnson lived his younger days in the Black River country near Boonville, New York. He was the second of eight children, only three of whom lived to be adults. Elma M. (May), his youngest sister, died when she was 16 in 1893, the year that his oldest daughter, Ruth, was born. Elmer E.¹ (Uncle El), his brother, was a year and a half younger than Fenton. El had various problems of ill health and instability and finally lost contact with the rest of the family.

Fenton's father held a number of different jobs. He was a carpenter at various times, and at one time he was a lock tender on the Black River Canal. This canal ran from the Erie Canal at Rome to Boonville where it branched. One leg went to Forestport and the main canal continued to Carthage. At another time he operated, with others, a water-powered sawmill. His mother, Emma Hart Johnson, was a tailoress before her marriage and may have done some tailoring after her marriage in addition to making the family's clothes.

Boonville was then the center of the world's largest hop-growing region and the annual hop-picking days were big social events. Fenton was able to make as much as $5.00 a night playing the accordion for dancing - far more than anyone could make in a day picking hops. In the daytime he picked hops into various girls' baskets, gratis.

Pike poles were much in demand for work with canal boats. These were long poles with steel pikes on the end used to push or pull boats and logs in the water. Fenton learned as a teenage boy to make these and sold them for $1.00 each. This was so profitable that he concealed the fact that it took only an hour to make one. No one would pay a boy $1.00 for an hour's work.

Emma Hart Johnson's brother, Tom Hart, was a well-known character in Boonville for a generation. A story teller and famous horse trader, he drove a meat wagon on a regular route through the countryside. He had a reputation as a hard drinker but this could be relative in Fenton's strict Presbyterian family. I remember seeing Uncle Tom's white meat wagon (traveling meat market) standing beside the house when I attended Grandma's funeral in 1916.

The youngest Johnson boy, Tom, was also convivial. He had a fine tenor voice and entertained in saloons all of his younger years, being paid in drinks. Fenton continually got Tom out of trouble as long as he (Fenton) lived. In spite of lifelong alcoholism Tom lived the longest of any of the family, dying in Cleveland, Ohio in 1966 at the age of 85.

As a young man Fenton felt called to be a minister and later became a Methodist. He had learned the carpentry trade and after his marriage to Florence Genevieve Bailey in 1891, they located at Clinton, New York where Fenton studied at Hamilton College while working on college building construction. They lived about ten years in the old Smith house in Clinton. The five older children were born here.

Fenton did not graduate and was not ordained, but became a Local Preacher and Supply, serving the Northern New York Conference over a period of about 40 years, until he retired in 1936. There were several breaks on account of ill health. In 1898 he took the family to Tupper Lake, New York, where they lived for two years. He bought five acres on the Racquette River and built a house and two cottages for rental. He also worked on the construction of the Grace Methodist Church there. His brother Tom worked for Fenton and many fishing and hunting stories stem from this two-year period.

After regaining his health he resumed preaching and was sent to South Bombay, his first regular appointment. He was then forced to leave the ministry again, in 1905, because of the loss of his speaking voice. After building ten company houses in Oriskany Falls, he and the family moved to Utica, where Fenton went into the building business. He built two apartment houses and numerous single houses before returning to the ministry in 1920.

It was during this period, about 1911, that Dad took me to Tupper Lake with the horse and buggy and Bub, our beloved dog. Going north from Utica, we went through Rome and passed the construction going on at Delta Dam. Shortly after that we stopped at a cemetery in the country and walked to a grave where Dad said, "This is the grave of my first wife." Much later, after Phyllis and I were married, we scoured the countryside north of Rome and found the cemetery again, and the grave of Minnie Hart Johnson (Ed. note: see separate sketch.) But as a seven-year-old boy, that visit to the grave made a lasting impression on me. We passed a deserted brick ore smelter at Benson Mines, which was now completely barren. My memory is a series of pictures of brooks; springs of water; Dad paying a woman for a hen that Bub killed and then complaining that he should at least have gotten the hen; the dining room and bedroom at the Indian River inn; the cemetery; and Dad, who had a great sense of humor, singing, "We don't know where we're going, but we're on our way", and telling me about a man named Post Nobles who owned all the fences and telephone poles. I didn't figure that one out for about ten years.²

On re-entering the ministry, Fenton was sent to Jordanville and South Columbia. Here he met and married Rose Hopkinson, school teacher, pianist, and piano teacher. In 1923 they were sent to the St. Lawrence Valley, where he served until his retirement. He built a new church at Waddington and enjoyed some of the finest lasting friendships of a lifetime. His last charge was Fine, New York, with Oswegatchie and Pitcairn as outer appointments. A favorite Sunday trip for the Tupper Lake Johnsons was the drive to Oswegatchie for the morning service.

In 1924 Fenton finally capitulated and bought an automobile. A few years later he gave up keeping a horse until after retirement. I had the difficult and dangerous job of teaching him to drive.

Upon retirement at age 70, Fenton and Rose bought a historic farm homestead at Richfield Springs and plunged into a new adventure. In the five years before his death, he built up a dairy herd of 30 cows, remodeled the old plank house (circa 1840), built a sawmill and cut timber from the farm for market, and got most of the land that had ever been cultivated back into crops. In all this work he was plagued by undependable hired men. In November 1941 a hired man disappeared, crops were in danger in a cold rain that might freeze, and Fenton went out alone with the truck to get them in. He developed pneumonia and died a few days later.

Fenton died 20 November 1941 and is buried at Lakeview Cemetery in Richfield Springs. Pall bearers were six grandsons, all of whom served in World War II, which began December 7, 1941. They were: Stanley Johnson, Bill Johnson, Donald Yates, Warren Yates, Bob Wardner, and Bruce Hawthorne.

1. The names 'Elmer and 'Elwin' seem to have been used interchangeably when referring to this man. It is possible that his name was 'Elmer Elwin.'

FENTON WESLEY JOHNSON

Methodist Minister

In 1898 Fenton was residing in Clinton, New York where, under the ministry of the Rev. Matthew D. Sill, he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Church. In the fall of 1899 he moved his family to Tupper Lake, New York where, in 1900 he built two cottages overlooking the Racquette River. It was at this time also, that he helped design and construct the Grace Methodist Church there. Fenton originally went to Tupper Lake because of his health, but he grew to love the area, especially along the Racquette River, and even after he returned to the ministry and was active elsewhere, he returned to Tupper Lake whenever possible. Two of his children settled here and their children, Fenton's grandchildren, attended the Tupper Lake schools. Many of his descendants live in Tupper Lake and others regularly vacation and visit there.

In 1901 Fenton was appointed to the church at South Bombay (Franklin County) where he served until 1904. (See photo.) In 1904 he was sent to Colton where he served until 1905. This appointment included South Colton and Hannawa Falls. He did not take an appointment in 1905 because of ill health. From 1905 until 1920 he worked at his trade as a contractor first in Oriskany Falls and later in Utica.¹ From 1920 to 1922 he served the churches at Jordanville and South Columbia. While here he met Rose Hopkinson. They were married on 11 April 1921.

In 1923 Fenton was appointed to DePeyster where he served until 1925. Then, in 1926, knowing he was an able builder and contractor, the Conference sent him to Waddington where he remained until 1931. (See appendix.) "It has been the most wonderful of all my experiences," declared Rev. Johnson. "Without the cooperation and backing, the work could not have been carried through to completion. I want to pay honor to these men."² Thus he referred to his job of rebuilding the Waddington church.

In 1932 Fenton was appointed to Fine with outer appointments at Oswegatchie and Pitcairn. He remained there until his retirement in 1936. It was during this period (1933) that he built a new brick church at Heuvelton and a church at Lee Center.

The St. Lawrence District Conference was held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Norwood, 10 and 11 March 1936. At this meeting, Fenton

W. Johnson spoke on "Abiding Impressions." He is listed in the program as "F. W. Johnson, Pastor, retiring this year."³

"Reverend Johnson was evangelistic in his work, and tireless in his efforts. He made a strong appeal to the young people of his charges organizing them for service. He also was able to enlist the service of men when he wanted a real man-sized piece of work done. His outstanding trait was humility. His characteristic attitude toward his appointment was, 'give me the most undesirable place in the Conference.' He never received such a place, but he was willing to take it.

"Funeral services were conducted from his late home and from the Methodist Church in Richfield Springs with the Reverend Philip Tonkin in charge. Several of his ministerial brethren were in attendance. Rev. C. M. Fulton offered prayer. Rev. Matthew D. Sill gave a personal tribute to his success as a pastor, and Rev. Maynard P. Beach, pastor of Dryer Memorial Church, Utica, who was Fenton's last Superintendent, preached the sermon. Burial was in Lakeview Cemetery, Richfield Springs."⁴

RECOLLECTIONS OF FLORENCE GENEVIEVE BAILEY

Transcribed from Notes Written by Ruth Johnson Hawthorne

Florence Genevieve Bailey was ten years old when her mother (Mary Ann) died at Lockport. After that, she was brought up by her half-sisters, Emma and Hattie, who were very strict.

Her father died in 1884 when she was sixteen. After Emma's death in 1886, Florence went to Kansas City and spent some time with her mother's brother, Galen Pearson. He was an engineer who put the first public water system in Kansas City. That year she met some interesting men from China who were sent by their government to study with Mr. Pearson.

She spent time in Seattle, Washington, with another brother after she met Fenton. She and Fenton had some misunderstandings in correspondence and almost broke up. She said then, "People in love should not be separated."

She lived for a time with Henry, her half brother, in New York City, and was with them when little Roswell, their only child, died at the age of four. Henry was then a Wall Street broker and fairly prosperous. Part of that time before her own marriage, she made her home with her brother George in Buffalo, where he was a reporter on the BUFFALO EXPRESS. She studied and practiced massage. One of the doctors with whom she worked was a Dr. Parker who cared for McKinley when he was shot.

Florence Genevieve's family were Universalists, quite modern in theology -- could not believe in Hell but were puritanical in conduct.

Fred A. Love, an artist, was the husband of (Betsy) Emma, half-sister of Florence. He had a studio in Chicago which was destroyed in the big fire and he then moved to Lockport. He did the painting of Mary Ann (Pearsons) (Sartwell) Bailey, and the painting of Florence Genevieve as a very small child.

THE DESCENDANTS OF
FENTON WESLEY JOHNSON
And His Wife
FLORENCE GENEVIEVE BAILEY

Six Generations

Generation I

A-1. FENTON WESLEY JOHNSON was born in Boonville, New York 20 January 1866.¹ He was the son of William Henry Johnson and Emma Hart.² He died at his home in Richfield Springs, New York 20 November 1941³ at the age of 75 years. He is buried at Lakeview Cemetery, Richfield Springs.

In early life Fenton Johnson was a contractor and builder, following in the footsteps of his father, who was a carpenter. Several large apartment houses in Utica attest to his ability. Among these is the Amlott Apartment at 364 Genesee Street.⁴ It is still standing in good condition, but with a different name. It was built at a cost of $100,000 (noted on back of photo).

Fenton was married four times:

(1st) Minnie M. Hart and Fenton were married 28 September 1887⁵ by Rev. S. M. Crofoot of North Western, New York. Minnie Hart Johnson died 5 March 1888.⁶ (See Separate Sketch, page 92.)

(2nd). Florence Genevieve Bailey and Fenton were married 25 June 1891⁷ by Rev. P. G. Cook, pastor of the Wells Street (Presbyterian) Church in Buffalo, of which Florence Genevieve was a member. The ceremony took place in the Gardner Memorial Chapel at Lockport, which Fenton had built. A newspaper clipping in the scrapbook of Velma Johnson Emmons reads: "Mr. and Mrs. Johnson go to Clinton, New York where the groom will enter Hamilton College next year." In addition to his studies, Fenton worked on construction at the college. An 1895 photo shows him with a construction crew on the steps of the college building.

Florence Genevieve Bailey was born 6 March 1868 at Lockport.⁸ She was the daughter of Roswell Bailey, a boatbuilder of Lockport, and Mary Ann (Pearsons) Sartwell.⁹ She died 30 March 1912¹⁰ after a lengthy struggle with severe asthma. In 1908 she travelled to Roswell, New Mexico to try to escape the effects of this condition. Taking little Hugh (age 4) and Ruth (age 15) with her, she remained in New Mexico for about a year. It was hard being separated from her husband and other children and they returned to Utica.

Children of Fenton Wesley and Florence Genevieve (Bailey) Johnson:¹¹

- B-2. Oliver, born and died 19 April 1892, Clinton, New York
- B-3. Ruth Adell, born 6 March 1893, Clinton, New York
- B-4. Faith Bailey, born 3 February 1895, Clinton, New York
- B-5. William Chester, born 23 April 1896, Clinton, New York
- B-6. Velma Mildred, born 24 January 1898, Clinton, New York
- B-7. Hugh Bailey, born 12 March 1904, South Bombay, New York

Note: Oliver, Ruth, Faith, Chester, and Velma were all born at the Smith Place, Clinton, New York. Oliver is buried in the yard. In 1971 this house was the Lutheran Home for the Aged.

(3rd) Florence LaBach and Fenton were married 28 February 1914 after the early death of Florence Genevieve at the age of 44. Fenton and Florence LaBach were married at Waterville, New York by Rev. Leroy Griggs.¹² This marriage is remembered by family members as a disaster. Fenton and Florence were not at all suited to each other and they were divorced in 1917. One child was born to them and raised by Fenton:

- B-8. Barbara Alice, born 19 June 1915, Utica, New York

(4th) Rose L. Hopkinson and Fenton were married at South Columbia, New York on 11 April 1921.¹³ She was born 24 October 1878,¹⁴ daughter of George A. Hopkinson and Sarah Shimel. Fenton and Rose had many happy years together until his death in 1941. Rose died 13 August 1951 at South Columbia. She is buried at Richfield Springs with Fenton.¹⁵

WILLIAM HENRY JOHNSON (Stephen, Charles)

1840-1909

William Henry Johnson was born 26 June 1840¹ in Herkimer County, New York² probably Salisbury. He was the son of Stephen Johnson and Abigail Johnston. William Henry had three brothers: Amos, Jason, and Jasper. Sometime before the Civil War, he moved to Boonville (Oneida County) New York. William Henry died 11 January 1909 in Utica³ and is buried at Boonville.

On 11 November 1861 he enlisted as a private in Captain S. M. Ferguson's Company (A) 97th Regiment of New York Volunteers commanded by Col. Wheelock to serve three years. At this time he was twenty-two years old, five feet nine inches tall, fair complexioned, with blue eyes and brown hair. He was with the regiment from 18 February 1862 when he was mustered in, until the end of May when "in the line of his duty he contracted the following disease, chronic inflammation of the left lung resulting from inflammation of the lungs caused by cold contracted while on the march from Manassas to Front Royal when near the latter place having slept three successive nights exposed to cold and rain without shelter of any description; being thoroughly drenched at night and being compelled to lie down in his wet clothes. This on the 27th day of May 1862."⁴

From 5 July until his discharge, William Henry was in the General Hospital at Fairfax Seminary near Alexandria, Virginia. He was discharged on 12 August 1862⁵ by order of General Wadsworth because of a disability which was described as "phthisis"⁶ and extremely feeble circulation."

After his discharge he returned to Boonville and on 17 January 1863 he married Emma Hart.⁷ The daughter of John Hart (1822-1861) and Sabrina Young (1822-1865), she was born 29 December 1844 at Western, New York. They had the following children:⁸

- i. Calista, born 5 July 1864 Boonville; died 10 March 1877
- ii. Fenton Wesley, born 20 January 1866, Boonville
- iii. Elmer E., born 8 August 1867, Boonville
- iv. Esther, born 18 January 1870, Boonville; died 12 March 1877
- v. Albert H., born 29 October 1871, Boonville; died 16 October 1872
- vi. Herburt, born 22 January 1874, Boonville; died 22 March 1874
- vii. Elma May, born 26 November 1877, Boonville; died 6 May 1893
- viii. Thomas B., born 20 March 1881, Boonville; died 26 December 1966

In the spring of 1908 William Henry Johnson and his wife, Emma Hart, moved to 15 Waverly Place, Utica, New York, where he died on 11 January 1909.⁹ During his life he had held a number of different jobs. Before his enlistment in 1861 he was a farmer.¹⁰ The 1870 census lists him as a laborer,¹¹ and in 1865¹² he was a lock tender on the Black River Canal. Before his death he worked as a carpenter¹³ and at another time he operated a water-powered sawmill in association with others.

His wife was a tailoress before her marriage. After his death, she lived in Boonville during the summers and spent the winters with her son, Fenton, in Utica. She died in Utica on 6 February 1916.¹⁴

WILLIAM H. JOHNSON

Died suddenly at the home of his son in Utica, Monday evening

Friends in Boonville were pained to hear of the death of William H. Johnson of this place, which occurred at 8:45 Monday evening at the home of his son, Fenton W. Johnson at 15 Waverly Place, Utica. Mr. Johnson's death was entirely unexpected as he appeared to be in the best of health and was playing with his grandchildren in the early part of the evening. He was suddenly seized with an attack of acute indigestion which affected his heart and his death resulted in a very short time. The blow was a severe one for his wife and family, who were with him at the time.

William H. Johnson was a son of the late Stephen and Abigail Johnson and was born 68 years ago. The greater part of his life was spent in this village. About 9 months ago he went to Utica to stay with his son. He was a man of many good qualities and had the respect and esteem of all who knew him. He enlisted in Co. A 97th Reg. and served in the Civil War and was a member of Post Wheelock #97 GAR. Mr. Johnson was a member of the Methodist Church and a devout Christian.

He is survived by his aged mother, his wife and three sons, Fenton W. and Thomas B. of Utica, and Elwin E. of Syracuse; also one brother, Amos Johnson of Utica, and five grandchildren. The remains will be brought to Boonville Thursday morning and the funeral will be held at the Methodist Church at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The services will be in charge of Post Wheelock.

MRS. EMMA H. JOHNSON

Died at the Home of Her Son in Utica Sunday

Boonville people will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Emma H. Johnson, which occurred at the home of her son, Fenton W. Johnson, at 27 Rose Place, Utica, Sunday morning. Mrs. Johnson was taken ill February 1 with pleuro pneumonia, which was the cause of death.

Mrs. Johnson was born in Boonville 71 years ago, daughter of John Hart. She married William H. Johnson, who died seven years ago. She went to Utica to live with her son two months ago. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the M.E. Church when in Boonville but recently took her church letter to Utica and affiliated with the First M.E. Church. She was a woman of many excellent qualities, and in Boonville had a host of friends, who will regret to learn of her death. She was a member of General William Floyd Chapter, D.A.R. and the Woman's Relief Corps. She is survived by the son mentioned and two other sons, Thomas of Whitesboro and Elwin of Syracuse, and two brothers, Abram Hart of Camden and Michael Hart of Constableville.

From another story, same page, titled: D.A.R. NEWS

Mrs. Johnson was the daughter of John Hart and Sabrina Young, granddaughter of Elias Young and Amy Tubbs, and great granddaughter of Barney Young and Elizabeth Rankin. Barney Young, a Revolutionary soldier was born in German Flats in 1754 and died there in 1833. He was one of a band of sturdy patriots from the Mohawk Valley who served in the New York State militia during the Revolution.

The above stories are from the Boonville (N.Y.) Herald on the dates indicated.

STEPHEN JOHNSON

1814-1877

Stephen Johnson was born about 1814¹ in Montgomery County, New York.² He was the son of Charles Johnson and Hannah Lamphere. He died 13 July 1877³ and is buried at Boonville, New York.⁴ Stephen married in 1837 Abigail Johnston, daughter of Lysander and Dianna Johnston. Abigail was born 28 August 1818⁵ in Herkimer County.⁶ She died at Utica, New York 6 July 1910⁷ and is buried at Boonville.⁸ Stephen and Abigail had the following children:

- i. William Henry, born 26 June 1840,⁹ Herkimer Co., New York¹⁰
- ii. Jasper, born 1846,¹¹ Jefferson Co., New York;¹² died 1898;¹³
buried Boonville, New York¹⁴
- iii. Jason, born 1852¹⁵ Oneida Co., New York¹⁶
- iv. Amos, born 1859¹⁷ Oneida Co., New York¹⁸

As is true of many of our early ancestors, Stephen moved around. Born in Montgomery County, he lived in Salisbury (Herkimer County) until at least 1840,¹⁹ the year his first child was born. By 1846, he was in Jefferson County,²⁰ where his second child, Jasper, was born. In 1850, he was living in Boonville,²¹ but by 1855 he had moved on to Amboy, in Oswego County.²²

Although his mother and father lived nearby, this area did not seem to hold a permanent appeal for Stephen and Abigail, for by 1865 they were back in Boonville where they spent the remainder of their lives. On the 1870 federal census enumeration, Stephen's occupation is given as "lock-tender - canal."²³

Federal censuses have been taken decennially since 1790. In addition, New York took a state census at ten-year intervals from 1825 through 1875 and again in 1892, 1905, 1915 and 1925. The schedules indicated below were viewed at the office of the County Clerk, Oswego, New York.

CHARLES JOHNSON

1788-1861

Charles Johnson was born in Albany County, New York¹ in 1788 or 1789. His tombstone² says 1789. However, records of the First Lutheran Church in Albany record the baptism at Freehold (then Albany County) of a Charles Johnson on 20 June 1788 to Charles Johnson and Maria Schmidt.³ It was noted that the birth was illegitimate. This could explain why it has been so difficult to identify the forebears of our Charles Johnson. Jacob Schmidt and his wife, Sarah, were named as sponsors. Presumably, they are the parents of Maria. The 1850 federal census indicates that Charles was 55 years old at that time. The 1860 federal census, however, gives his age as 68. It is impossible, at this time, to be sure which birthdate is correct.

Charles died 2 November 1861⁴ in Oswego County, New York, where he had lived since at least 1850.⁵ He is buried in a small cemetery on Dutch Hill Road in the Town of Parish.

On 18 December 1813 Charles married Hannah Lamphere,⁶ daughter of Alpheus Lamphere and Hannah Satterlee. Hannah Lamphere was born 19 February 1794⁷ in Washington County, New York.⁸ She died 4 September 1867⁹ and is buried in Dutch Hill Cemetery.

Hannah Lamphere's father, Alpheus Lamphere, was the son of Abel Lamphere and Rebecca Dye.¹⁰ Hannah Satterlee, who was born in 1776 in Westerly, Rhode Island, was the daughter of John Satterlee and Hannah Hyde.

Charles and Hannah (Lamphere) Johnson had the following children:

- i. Stephen, born ca 1814, probably Herkimer Co., New York¹¹
- ii. Hannah, born 1817; married William W. Stebbins¹²
- iii. Abigail
- iv. William
- v. Merrit, born 1822;¹³ 1850 lived Parish, Oswego Co.
- vi. James, born 1823;¹⁴ 1850 lived Boonville, Oneida Co.
- vii. Cynthia
- viii. Betsy
- ix. Charles Jr, born 1829;¹⁵ married Amanda _____; 1870 Boonville
- x. George, born 1833,¹⁶ Herkimer Co; married Mary Jane Davis; died 17 November 1903, West Amboy (Oswego Co.) New York

ALPHEUS LAMPHERE

1771-1850

Alpheus Lamphere was born 4 May 1771 at Kent, Connecticut, the son of Abel Lamphere and Rebecca Dye.¹ He died 9 April 1850 at Salisbury, Herkimer County, New York and is buried there in the Stratford Cemetery.²

He was married in 1793 to Hannah Satterlee, daughter of John Satterlee and Hannah Hyde. She was born in 1776 at Westerly, Rhode Island, and died 19 April 1850 at Salisbury. She is buried at the Stratford Cemetery.³

In 1800 Alpheus was in Washington County, New York.⁴ In 1810 he was in Mayfield, Montgomery County.⁵ In 1820 he was in Corinth, Saratoga County⁶ and he was in Salisbury in 1836, when he and Charles Johnson and Artemus White bought adjoining pieces of land.⁷

Alpheus and Hannah (Satterlee) Lamphere had the following children:

- i. Hannah, born 19 February 1794, Washington Co., New York;⁸ married Charles Johnson 18 December 1813; died 4 September 1867⁹ Oswego Co; buried in Dutch Hill Cemetery.
- ii. Alpheus Jr., born 13 April 1796, Washington Co., New York; married (1) Bathsheba Walworth 1820;¹⁰ married (2) Margaret Tanner¹¹ died 17 November 1852;¹² buried Stratford Cemetery¹³
- iii. Amatus, born 30 July 1798, Washington Co., New York; married Russell Prentis;¹⁴ died 10 March 1886, Indiana¹⁵
- iv. Cynthia, born 7 January 1801; married 1820, Lucius Chadderton;¹⁶ died 21 February 1882, Flat Rock, Michigan¹⁷
- v. Isaac Meritt, born 9 November 1803;¹⁸ married Caroline Clothier; died 23 January 1871,¹⁹ Salisbury; buried Stratford Cemetery²⁰
- vi. Rebecca, born 21 June 1808; married Joseph Perkins; died 13 June 1850 Salisbury
- vii. Daniel, born 1 May 1812; married 1839 Elizabeth Norris; died 14 September 1872 Michigan
- viii. Louisa, born 5 August 1815; married Artemus White 1835; died 1 December 1875 Michigan
- ix. Betsy, born 10 September 1818; married 1837 Elijah Jennings; lived Allegheny, Pennsylvania

JOHN SATTERLEE (John, Nicholas)
1745-1829

John Satterlee was born in 1745 at Hopkinton, Rhode Island, the son of John Satterlee and Experience Lamphere of Westerly, Rhode Island. In the spring of 1776 he enlisted as corporal in Capt. Abel Tanner's company, Col. George Thurston's Rhode Island Regiment. On 27 April 1777 he re-enlisted as a private in Capt. McGregor's Company, Col. John Durkee's Connecticut Regiment and served until 27 April 1780.

John married Hannah Hyde, daughter of John Hyde, in Hopkinton, 27 July 1775. From Hopkinton they moved to Saratoga County, New York, and then to Washington County. He died 13 February 1829 at Jessup's Landing (now Corinth), New York.

Hannah Hyde Satterlee was allowed pension on her application executed 14 April 1842 at which time she was living in Canajoharie, New York, aged 89 years. In 1843 she was living at Fort Plain, New York.

John and Hannah had twelve children. The birth dates given below are approximate and the order of birth may not be correct. New York, at this time, had no registration of vital records and different sources give different dates.

- i. Hannah, born ca. 1776, Westerly, Rhode Island; married Alpheus Lamphere; died 1850 Salisbury, New York¹
- ii. Nathan, born 1782, probably at Westerly, Rhode Island
- iii. Amos, born 1785
- iv. Betsy, born 1787
- v. Joseph, born 15 December 1789; married Dorcas Babcock; died 26 February 1863, East Otto, New York
- vi. Daniel, born 1791; married Amey Clark
- vii. Drusilla, born 1793
- viii. Amy, born 1795²
- ix. Nancy, born 1797
- x. Sylvia, born 1799
- xi. Ira, born 1801; married Martha _____
- xii. Solomon, born 1803; died in infancy

1. Gravestone, Stratford Cemetery, Salisbury, New York

2. One source says that Amy, daughter of John Satterlee and Hannah Hyde, married William Tubbs. However, this is questionable. It is more likely that William Tubbs' wife was a different Amy Satterlee.

Other information is from the 1850 federal census, military service record and pension application file of John Satterlee (National Archives), DAR lineage records, and correspondence with Goldie Satterlee Moffatt, compiler of Satterlee-ley-ly & Allied Families.

BARNEY (BARENT) YOUNG

1766-1842

Barney Young was born 27 August 1766, the son of John Young (Jung) and his wife Margretha. He was married 14 June 1785 at the Dutch Reformed Church in Albany to Elizabeth Rankins (Rykins), who was born 16 March 1767. They lived in Albany two years, then moved to Herkimer County. They lived in German Flats except for a few years in Montgomery County.

Barney enlisted at Albany in the year that Col. Brown was killed at Stone Arabia¹ (1780). He served as private in Capt. Peter B. Tearse's and Fonda's company, Col. Willett's New York regiment, stationed at Fort Plain, Stone Arabia, and Fort Herkimer, engaged in scouting, and was discharged after having served a tour of nine months. He re-enlisted 30 April 1782 and served as private in Capt. Peter B. Tearse's company, Col. Marinus Willett's New York regiment, and was discharged the first of January 1783. Elizabeth Young, soldier's widow, was allowed pension on her application executed 8 June 1843, at which time she was living in German Flats. In 1848, she was living in Danube, Herkimer County.²

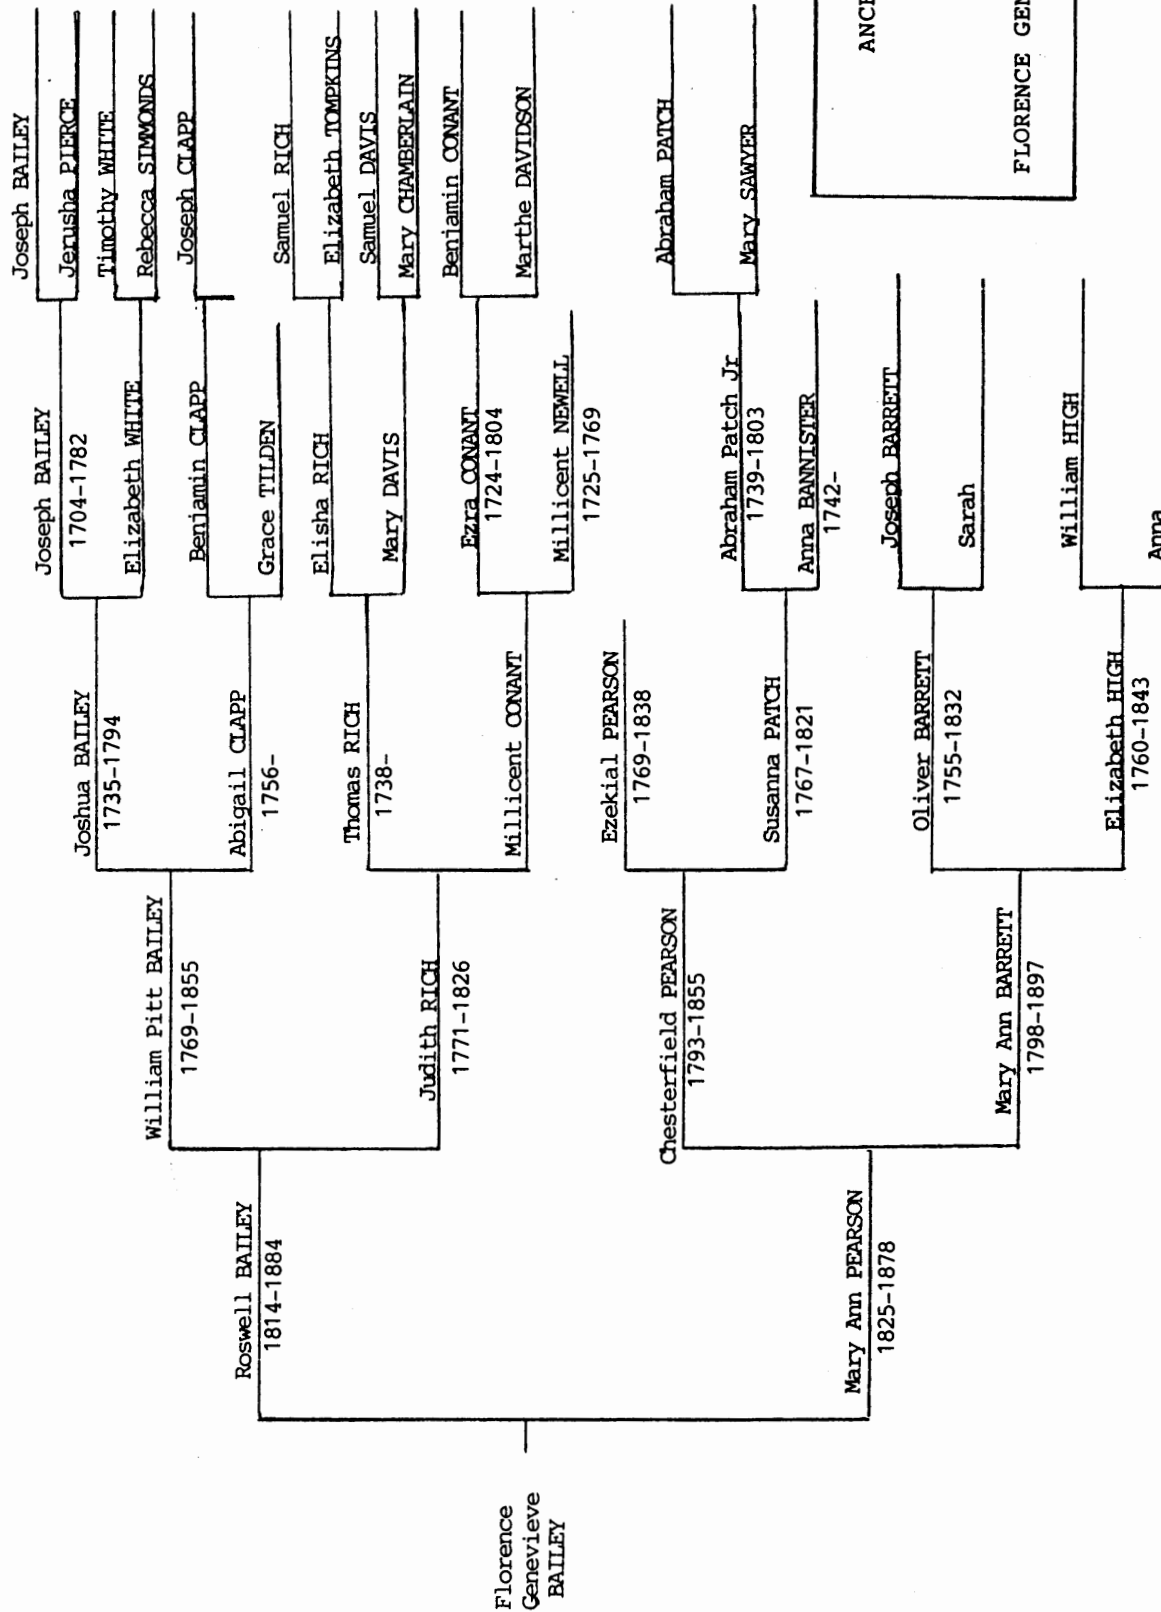

Barney and Elizabeth Young had twelve children, ten of whom were still living in 1843.

- i. John, born 24 April 1786, Albany³
- ii. Michael, born 11 October 1787; died young⁴
- iii. Michael, born 4 December 1789⁵
- iv. Adam
- v. Margaret, born 3 August 1792, Stone Arabia⁷
- vi. Maria, born 6 November 1794;
- vii. Elizabeth
- viii. _____
- ix. Elias, born 1800; married Amy Tubbs 1821
- x. Julius, bp 29 May 1803⁸
- xi. Corolus (Charles?), born 27 July 1806⁹
- xii. Eva, born 8 April 1809¹⁰

Barney Young died 9 June 1842. A search of the area has failed to reveal his place of burial.

William Pitt Bailey

ROSWELL CONANT BAILEY (Wm.Pitt, Joshua, Joseph)

1814-1884

Roswell Conant Bailey was born 27 April 1814 in Shoreham, Vermont.¹ He was the youngest son of William Pitt Bailey and Judith Rich.² When Roswell was one year old (1815) his father moved the family across Lake Champlain to St. Lawrence County, New York. Here he built a sawmill, a gristmill, and founded the village of Morley (near Canton). He later moved a short distance to West Potsdam.³

Roswell was married (1st) 23 September 1835 probably in Bristol, Vermont to Emeline Moody.⁴ They had five children before she died 20 January 1856. She is buried at the Ogdensburg, New York Cemetery. Their children were:

- i. William Pitt, born 2 July 1837 in Vermont; married Lucia Owen; died 1 June 1878 Ogdensburg
- ii. Betsy Emma, born 7 September 1839, St. Lawrence Co, N.Y.; married Fred A. Love; died 7 March 1886 Lockport, New York
- iii. Lawrence S., born 11 August 1841; died 14 June 1845
- iv. Henry C., born 2 June 1846 Ogdensburg; married "Tudy" Susan; died 1 June 1900 New York City
- v. Harriet E., born 4 June 1850; married Aaron Cass; died before 1886 at Lockport

Roswell Bailey married (2nd) Mary Ann Pearsons on 6 August 1857. She was the daughter of Chesterfield Pearsons and Mary Ann Barrett, and was born 15 December 1825 in Jefferson County, New York. She was previously married to Simeon Sartwell. She died 12 August 1878 at Lockport.

Roswell and Mary Ann (Pearsons) Bailey had the following:

- i. Charles R., born 13 January 1859, Ogdensburg; died 1 May 1859
- ii. Frank Christopher, born 5 November 1860, Ogdensburg; married Maggie Hunt; died 22 January 1885 Grinnell, Iowa; buried Lockport
- iii. George Milroy, born 8 October 1862 Ogdensburg; married (1st) Evelyn Fairchild; married (2nd) Olivia P. Ball; died 6 March 1920; buried Lake View Cemetery, Seattle, Washington
- iv. W. T. Sherman, born 30 March 1865, Lockport; died 19 March 1866
- v. Phil Sheridan, born 30 March 1865 Lockport; died 22 September 1865 Lockport
- vi. Florence Genevieve, born 6 March 1868, Lockport; married Fenton W. Johnson; died 30 March 1912

Roswell and his family settled in Lockport, New York about 1865. The twins and Florence Genevieve were born there. He is listed in the 1866/1867 city directory as a carpenter. In the 1884 city directory, his occupation is given as pattern maker. He had a shop on the Erie Canal where he built canal boats. He was also a cabinet maker and carriage maker. He died 27 October 1884 at Lockport and is buried there.

"His life has been quiet, unassuming, exemplary. . . . he said he had never quarreled with any man, had never wilfully wronged another, and was ready to meet his Maker." (Obituary - Lockport Daily Union 10/30/84)

WILLIAM PITT BAILEY (Joshua, Joseph, Joseph)

1769-1855

William Pitt Bailey, son of Joshua Bailey and Abigail Clapp, was born 8 March 1769 in Hanover, Massachusetts.¹ He died 6 April 1855 in Fairwater, Wisconsin.²

While yet a young man, William P. Bailey traveled with his family to the village of Shoreham (Addison Co.) Vermont near Lake Champlain. Here, on 10 May 1792, he married Judith Rich,³ daughter of Thomas Rich and Millicent Conant.⁴ William and Judith had ten children, all born in Shoreham.

- i. William, born 11 March 1793;⁵ married Juliette Rawson;⁶ died 8 February 1883 Silver Creek, N. Y.⁷
- ii. Minerva, born 4 December 1794;⁸ married Eden Ray
- iii. Millicent, born 27 June 1796;⁹ married William Hurd
- iv. Thomas Rich, born 14 May 1798;¹⁰ lived Lockport, N.Y. (1855)
- v. Ansel, born 19 May 1800;¹¹ died 20 March 1803¹²
- vi. Marvin, born 18 May 1802¹³
- vii. Ansel, born 1 March 1804¹³
- viii. George W., born 1 May 1809; died 24 October 1879
- ix. Ervin Amda, born 1812; died 25 May 1894, West Potsdam, N.Y.¹⁴
- x. Roswell Conant, born 27 April 1814¹⁵

In 1815 William Pitt Bailey took his family to St. Lawrence County, New York, where they settled near the village of Morley, near Canton. Here he ran a hotel for many years, on the west side of the Grasse River.¹⁶

He died in Fairwater, Wisconsin in 1855. Two of his children, Minerva Ray and Millicent Hurd, were also living in Wisconsin. After the death of his wife, Judith, 22 December 1826, he and his second wife, who is known only as Susannah, evidently moved to Fairwater with his daughters.¹⁷ Judith (Rich) Bailey is buried in a small cemetery known as the Bacon Cemetery, a few miles west of Potsdam on route 345 (formerly 56A) on the north side of the road.¹⁸

In 1815 they put into this mill two run of rock-stones, with a bolt. Two years later they built a new mill and put in burr-stones. These mills stood about four rods east of the present stone mill. . . Bailey built a frame house on the west side of the river. It now forms part of the Ervin hotel, which Bailey built and kept for many years. . . JOSHUA BAILEY (Joseph, Joseph, John)

1735-

Joshua Bailey was born 17 June 1735 at Scituate, Massachusetts.¹ He was the son of Deacon Joseph Bailey and Elizabeth White. Joshua married 22 December 1756 at Scituate, Abigail Clapp,² daughter of Benjamin Clapp and Grace Tilden. Abigail was born 21 August 1736 at Scituate.³ No record of Joshua's death has been found but it seems as though he probably died at Shoreham, Vermont between 1800 and 1802. He is listed on the Great List of Shoreham (tax list) in 1802 with a line drawn through his name.⁴ His name is on the 1800 census, but not on the 1810 census.

Joshua Bailey was a prominent man in Chesterfield, Massachusetts, where he held several political offices. He is on a list of men who loaned their guns to the Revolutionary soldiers. His gun was valued at 1 pound 16 shillings.

Joshua and Abigail (Clapp) Bailey had the following children:

- i. Elijah, born 15 October 1757, Scituate;⁵ married Susannah Litchfield 20 March 1779; died 9 March 1825; buried Hague, New York
- ii. Miranda, born 15 April 1759, Scituate⁶
- iii. Abigail, born 17 August 1762; married John Fobes⁷ 30 January 1783; died 30 July 1821;⁸ buried South Potsdam Cemetery, St. Lawrence Co., New York
- iv. Grace, born 7 February 1765; married Jabez Healy⁹
- v. Bela, born 27 April 1767, Hanover, Mass; married Elizabeth (Betsy) Rich,¹⁰ 1 February 1808; died 27 August 1841;¹¹ buried Valley View Cemetery, Ticonderoga, New York¹²
- vi. William Pitt, born 8 March 1769, Hanover, Mass;¹³ married Judith Rich 10 May 1792, Shoreham, Vermont;¹⁴ died 6 April 1855, Fairwater, Wisconsin.¹⁵
- vii. Benjamin, born 3 May 1771 Chesterfield, Mass; married (1) Keziah Holbrook,¹⁶ 17 November 1791; married (2) Sibyl Eggleston¹⁷ 18 July 1807; died 4 February 1849;¹⁸ buried South Potsdam Cemetery, St. Lawrence County, New York

CHESTERFIELD PEARSON

1793-1855

Chesterfield Pearson(s) was born 31 January 1793 at Windsor, Vermont. He died 1 March 1855 at Wells Island, Town of Orleans (Jefferson County) New York.² He is buried in the Orleans Corners Cemetery.³

Chesterfield was the son of Ezekial Pearson and Susanna Patch.⁴ He was married 18 December 1817 at Windsor, Vermont to Mary Ann Barrett.⁵ She was born 1798 at Windsor and died 1897, probably at Watertown, New York. She was the daughter of Oliver Barrett and Elizabeth High.⁷

Chesterfield and Mary Ann (Barrett) Pearson had the following children:

- i. Harrison C., born ca 1819; married (1st) Cornelia; (2nd) Mary.
- ii. Elutheria S., born January 1821;⁸ died 19 June 1837⁹
- iii. William Ezekial, born 1824;¹⁰ died 29 May 1849¹¹
- iv. Mary Ann, born 15 December 1825;¹² died 12 August 1878¹³
- v. Oliver Barrett, born 1827;¹⁴ died 14 November 1853¹⁵
- vi. Galen W. - lived Kansas City
- vii. Laura, born 1830;¹⁶ married Abner Peck 26 December 1850¹⁷
- viii. Lucia, born 1832;¹⁸ died 15 November 1832¹⁹
- ix. Christopher C., born 1837²⁰ died 24 November 1860²¹

Chesterfield Pearson served in the War of 1812 as Fifer Major in Capt. Daniel Phelps' C. Infantry, 3rd Regiment Vermont Militia. In 1813, having been discharged at Burlington, he re-enlisted at Brownsville, New York in Capt. William Cole's Co. Militia. He is described at the time of his first enlistment as being 4 ft. 8 inches tall, black hair, dark eyes, fair complexion, a blacksmith by trade.²²

When he died 1 March 1855, he left no will. His widow, Mary Ann, filed a petition for Letters of Administration 25 January 1858. It stated that Chesterfield died a natural death in the Town of Orleans; that estimate of his personal property did not exceed $50; that he left, in addition to his widow, other kindred: Harrison E. Pearson of Orleans; Mary Bailey, wife of Roswell Bailey, of Ogdensburg; Laura Peck, wife of Abner Peck, of Orleans; Galen W. Pearson of Ogdensburg; and Christopher C. Pearson of Illinois.²³

THOMAS RICH (Elisha, Samuel, Nicholas)

1738-1828

Thomas Rich was born 29 October 1738 at Sutton, Massachusetts,¹ the son of Elisha Rich and Mary Davis. He died 22 August 1828,² probably at Shoreham, Vermont.

Thomas married 9 August 1770 at Warwick, Massachusetts Millicent Conant³ (Ezra, Benjamin, John, Lot, Roger). She was born 25 August 1754 at Dudley, Massachusetts, daughter of Ezra Conant and Millicent Newell.⁵ She died 1831,⁶ probably at Shoreham, Vermont.

Thomas and Millicent (Conant) Rich had twelve children:

- i. Charles, born 13 Sept. 1771, Warwick, Mass;⁷ married Molly Watts 24 Sept. 1791;⁸ died 16 October 1824 Shoreham, Vt.⁹
- ii. Judith, born 10 May 1772, Warwick, Mass;¹⁰ married William Pitt Bailey 10 May 1792;¹¹ died 22 December 1826¹²
- iii. Ebenezer, born 10 January 1775, Warwick;¹³ married (1) Thankful ____;¹⁴ married (2) Elizabeth Stockwell 6 Sept. 1798,¹⁵ Shoreham
- iv. John, born 12 December 1777, Warwick;¹⁶ married Betsey Williams 29 January 1801¹⁷
- v. Millicent, born 18 November 1779, Warwick;¹⁸ married Moulton Needham 5 Feb 1801¹⁹
- vi. Anna, born 14 October 1781, Warwick;²⁰ married Peter Ripley Leonard; died 5 January 1870²¹

A RICH FAMILY

A Singularly Mixed Family Relation How the Wilsons Coveted Riches--A True History

Special to THE BUFFALO EXPRESS.

Silver Creek, Aug. 23.-- Not many years ago an old man died in this village named William Bailey. He lacked but one month of being ninety years of age. He was one of the oldest Freemasons in the country. He was through life the intimate friend of Silas Wright up to the latter's death.

Mr. Bailey is buried at Nashville, about ten miles from here, beside his wife Julia, to whom he had been married nearly half a century. He was a great story-teller and loved to tell of his younger days. He could be pardoned in this, as his stories were generally very interesting and were graphically told.

The one recalled is not of Indians on Lake Champlain nor of a youth spent in the wilds of St. Lawrence County in this State. It is of a curiously mixed family relation, in which his own father was an actor. The family Bible containing the record is still preserved by a son living in Syracuse.

Not long before Mr. Bailey died he told the following strange family history:

"My grandfather on my mother's side was Thomas Rich. He had two brothers, Ebenezer and Nathaniel. Each had a family of children, among whom were eight daughters and one son, who did something remarkable.

"These three brothers lived near Shoreham, Vermont. Their most intimate neighbor was a farmer named Jonathan Wilson, who had seven children, six sons and one daughter. It is a fact in our family history that eight of the children of these three brothers married the seven children of farmer Rich. How did they do it? Here is a copy of the record. Although it took place in the Eighteenth century the history is accurate."

The old gentleman then got out the family Bible, the first entry of which was dated '1701,' and pointing to the pages, stained with age, he said:

"Here are the seven children of Jonathan Wilson: First William Wilson married a daughter of Nathaniel Rich; then James Wilson married another and Jonathan Wilson married another daughter; Christopher Wilson married a daughter of Thomas Rich; Ezekial and Reuben Wilson married two other daughters of Thomas. This exhausts the sons of Farmer Wilson, you see, but the daughter, Sally, married a son of Ebenezer Rich."

"The wives of William and Christopher Wilson died, but they married two daughters of Ebenezer Rich--cousins of their wives, of course.

"Now, my father married Judith, a daughter of Thomas Rich, and my father's brother, Bela, married another daughter of Ebenezer Rich. Polly Bailey, their cousin, married a son of Thos. Rich.

"The only survivor of the strange Wilson-Rich alliance is Mrs. Betsey Smith, who married Guerdon Smith for her second husband. I believe she is still living at Colton, St. Lawrence County, N.Y. She is over ninety years of age, and is a Spiritualist."

Old Mr. William Bailey was fond of his own name, as two of his sons were named William.

Copied from a clipping in the scrapbook of Velma Johnson (Wardner) Emmons. No year is given, but the William Bailey referred to at the beginning, died in 1883.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Waddington, New York

Dedication services 16 October 1927 marked the culmination of the efforts of a band of a hundred Methodists inspired by the zeal of their pastor, Rev. Fenton Wesley Johnson. The 'Little Brick Church', in which they worshipped for many years, had been destroyed by fire on 16 November 1925. The parsonage, too, was badly damaged.

In the spring of 1926, Rev. Fenton W. Johnson was appointed to the Waddington charge. A member of the Northern New York Conference for about thirty years, but the son of a carpenter, he was born with a builder's instinct. In fact, when ill health forced him to leave the ministry, he had returned to the building trade from 1905-1920.

Fenton drew plans for a new church in detail, according to his own modern ideas of church architecture. He succeeded in getting away from the old-time rural church style. Soon after he was assigned to Waddington, he and a few of his parishioners went to East Belmont, Franklin County, where they wrecked an abandoned church building and brought every piece of board and timber on trucks to Waddington at very little expense. This was used in the framework.

Practically all the work was done by the pastor and a few 'handy men'. A carpenter was hired for about ten days and a Watertown bricklayer laid the brick, which was salvaged from the ruins of the old church.

The pews were obtained from the Wesleyan Methodist Church at Lisbon for a cost of about $150. The pulpit set was presented by a former pastor, Rev. Harry C. Campbell of Waterville. The electric wiring was done by the St. Lawrence County Utilities, Inc., the fixtures having been carefully chosen by the pastor.

To be complete, a church must have a bell. This was obtained from an old church in New Hampshire, which replaced it with chimes. Rev. Johnson purchased it for $75.

The church is of gothic architecture with gothic arch ceiling. The roof is of slate, the trimmings of stone. The interior is finished in solid oak, frescoed in tints of brown and tan. The floor of the auditorium is covered with battleship linoleum given by the Ladies' Aid at a cost of $500.

The total cost of $17,000 included both church building and equipment. It was estimated that under contract and under ordinary circumstances the church could not have been built for less than $50,000. All the money was pledged before completion.

Mrs. Johnson served as organist at the dedication service. Rev. Johnson not only took part in the liturgy, but also assisted the choir in the anthem. He humorously described the trip to East Belmont where a week was spent by him and a half dozen other men of the congregation in wrecking the old church. They lived in the town hall and Rev. Johnson acted as cook.

Dr. William D. Marsh, District Superintendent, who gave the sermon, complimented Rev. Johnson on the work he had done. He told of the problem faced when the Waddington church was destroyed by fire and of how Rev. Johnson was the only man of whom he knew to place at the helm in rebuilding the edifice.

Note: This church is now known as the Waddington United Methodist Church. An addition was recently added (about 1987) at which time the top part of the bell tower, which was then in poor condition, was removed. The bricks and design of the addition seem to exactly match the 1927 building.

MINNIE HART JOHNSON

On 28 September 1887, Fenton Wesley Johnson, a carpenter of Boonville, Oneida County, New York, and Minnie M. Hart were married in the Town of Western by Rev. S. M. Crofoot of the Village of North Western. It was the first marriage for each. The witnesses were Wesley Johnson and Lizzie Jillson.

Fenton W. Johnson was born in Boonville, 20 January 1866, the son of William Henry and Emma (Hart) Johnson. Emma Hart was the oldest child of John Hart and Sabrina (Young) Hart. Emma's father, John Hart, was the son of John and Polly (Blasier) Hart.

Minnie M. Hart was born in Boonville in 1864 and lived in Western. She was the youngest of the two children of Daniel and Fanny (Huguenine) Hart. Her sister, Ella, was born in 1862. Fanny Huguenine was born in 1831, the daughter of Peter and Mary (Clemens) Huguenine. Fanny died 20 November 1893 of pneumonia while visiting her sister in Utica. Daniel Hart was the son of John and Polly (Blasier) Hart. He was born in 1836 in Saint Lawrence County. He is listed on the federal census as a lock tender (Black River Canal) although his death certificate gives his occupation as farmer. He died 20 November 1885 of typhoid pneumonia, at the age of 49. His funeral was held at the North Steuben Methodist Episcopal Church. On the death certificate this is given as the place of burial but his name is on the monument in the cemetery at Wells Creek. Daniel was a younger brother of John Hart, father of Emma. Emma Hart and Minnie Hart, therefore, were first cousins. Fenton Johnson and his first wife, Minnie Hart, were first cousins once (one generation) removed.

Minnie Hart Johnson died 5 March 1888, aged 23 years, at Painesville, Lake County, Ohio, less than six months after her marriage. This compiler was not successful in obtaining a death certificate, but family tradition says she died of tuberculosis. She is buried in the Frenchville (Wells Creek) Cemetery on Route 46, Town of Western, Oneida County. Also in the same cemetery are Peter and Mary Huguenine. There is a tall monument with HART and JOHNSON on the front in large letters. A chain looped between concrete posts encircles the monument. On the left side are the names of Daniel and Fanny, and on the right, Minnie, thus:

MARRIED

At the Gardner Memorial Chapel last evening a number of invited guests assembled to witness the first marriage service celebrated therein. The high contracting parties being mainly instrumental in the establishment of this mission chapel made the occasion one of especial interest to their friends in the First Presbyterian society. The broad middle aisle was banked on either side with large bushes of blooming roses, which with abundant and tasteful decorations of marguerites and greens made a unique and quite charming effect.

At half past eight the arrival of the bridal party was announced by the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, well rendered by Prof. Halstead. Waiting at the altar stood the Rev. P. J. Cook of Buffalo, N.Y., who most impressibly performed the marriage service, uniting as husband and wife Mr. Fenton W. Johnson and Miss Florence Genevieve Bailey. The bride was attended by Miss Nettie Handley of Buffalo, wearing a beautiful costume of pale green and maize, which was in fine contrast with the bride's gown of delicate cream colors. A more stately and elegant bride is rarely to be seen.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal party with a few friends were handsomely entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Johnson at their home on Niagara Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Fenton W. Johnson left at midnight for their future home in Clinton, N. Y. Some very useful and choice gifts were among those bestowed upon the happy bride and groom. Miss Fellows of Suspension Bridge, and Miss VerPlanck and Mr. Percy Darby of Buffalo, were the out of town guests.

Dear Children:

After all that I have said and thought about this delayed R.R. I am faltering myself, and it must not continue, I do not wish to be a party to failure in carrying on so good a thing as this R.R.

We are certainly busy, and this very minute there are several things calling, I just arrived home from Syracuse last eve. with Barbara, and the reason I will leave with her to explain, I did not go there for the purpose of getting her but things happened just at the right time. I went down to Lee Center and from there to Cazenovia on business, and then to Syracuse to see Barbara.

Of course since this Robin went its rounds I have seen most of you, in fact all except Ruth, and You are so good Ruth to write me and I so careless, but you will have heard from me long before you receive this.

Things are moving fast in the world and with us, I think the war is about over, and I hope that they wont rob poor Ethiopia in the settlement.

I am burying a few people, and marrying once in a while a couple that I hope will stay married, and behave themselves, I cant imagine what the rising generation will be like unless the parents straighten up and live like decent men and women.

People say that it is much worst in the cities than in the country, and if that is so and Fine is anything to go by the Lord help us.

What I hope for is that the fine young people of the country will see what a mess the others are making of things and will rise up and do something about it, and the first thing put the drink business where it belongs before it puts the country out of commission entirely.

I have a fever to get a deer for the first time in 20 years, I think the main reason is that we need food, and we could use it very handy and another reason is that I am getting old and I would like a head of a nice one.

I may go up to Tupper before the season closes if I can spare the $.

We have part of our wood and I have bought the rest and I draw it as I am able to pay for it, this last week I received from the entire charge $2.75 and spent all of it and more with it for gas, we are selling all of our milk at present, and it helps a lot, just for the hunting season. I shall be glad when spring comes again and I can get out in the world and earn some money and not live like poor people all the time.

And I suppose after next year and F.D.R. is re-elected all will be well, I wont care much if he will only keep the price of eggs and poultry up, and of course pork, for that is such a help to the poor farmer of Canada.

Well I must get down to business or you will think I am in my childhood again. We are pretty well at present, Rose had a cold about two weeks ago, and I have just been a little tired.

Rose will have passed another mile stone tomorrow, and I will be 70 the 20th of January, and after next April I am going to do as I please, and if there is any gold to be dug up in this old world I am going after it.

I am very happy in spite of all things, for I love God with all my heart, he has forgiven all my sins and is treating me fine, and has forgotten all my mistakes and bad things, and doesn't say a word about it all, and besides he promises to answer all my requests, and says that I shall not 'want any good thing'. And he is rich, so why should I worry.

And if my children and grandchildren will leave drink alone and drive slow, and love their wives and husbands and keep the R.R. going, and all come down to the farm and see grand-pa, All will be well.

Please excuse all mistakes and short comings in this and the next time it may be lighter and I can see the letters on the machine.

One thing above all else I enclose a lot of love to you all, so gather it up and sing.

X X X X X X X Dad

(This is one of a series of round robin letters (R.R.) written between 1931 and 1941, in my possession.)

Below are excerpts from a letter written by Florence Genevieve (Bailey) Johnson, while she and Hugh and Ruth were living in New Mexico 1908-1909.

My own Fenton -

Have just finished Chester's letter and wrote Faith and Velma yesterday, so after telling you the same old story will go to bed. Hugh got into our bed about 3 or 4 I guess last night and kicked and thrashed so we didn't get much more sleep.

We had a good sermon and class meeting - I taught the S.S. class today - 3 pews of women - our teacher wasn't there . . . Have put in a busy week with my painting and dyeing my black dress, but for all that - I don't know when a week has dragged so in passing and I've had to fight homesickness more this week than ever . . . It's been so warm here today - I wore my silk coat and wished I had a parasol instead . . . Have been pretty free this week from asthma and feel pretty well - If you folks were only here I would be perfectly happy . . . Florence

A FEW MISCELLANEOUS EXCERPTS

I have plenty to do in the house, so it is well. I will catch up some of my correspondence and . . . build a work bench, and get the toilet tank fixed, and you can guess the rest. I am so happy I don't know what to do - plenty to do - a man sized job. Nothing like a man sized job for satisfaction.

(Letter to Hugh, Ida, Hughie & David, Dec. 16, 1938)

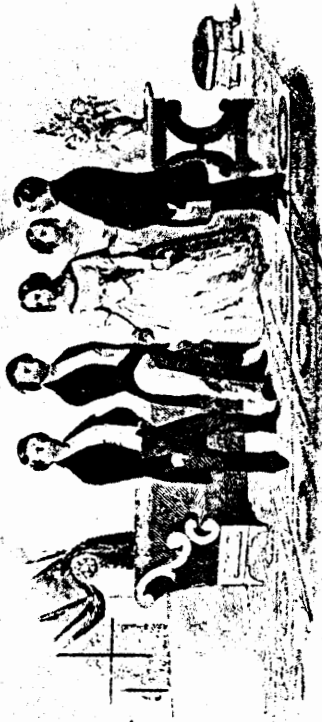

I will soon get out of this building business and will never get into it again while I am preaching, although this has been a wonderful opportunity. . . .

So many sad things in life, but the best thing in life is a past that is sweet and good, for we live so much in it at my age. Your Mother was the most wonderful woman I ever knew - purely unselfish, most noble hearted - so pure in heart and principle. What a memory.

(Letter from Waddington, N.Y. to Hugh, Dec. 25, 1929)

I love you all and am anxious for you all to get on and enjoy your lives, but I am doubly anxious for you all to get your assets and liabilities straightened out so you can tell which is which, and know that certain hard circumstances are our best friends, and don't kick at them. . . . There are three things I am out to fight, as I said before, The liquor business, War, and exploitation. Pray for your Dad that he comes in on the home stretch with colors up. . . God bless and keep you all.
